

Peer Feedback Checklist—Scientific Argument

The argument was persuasive.

Which part of the argument was the most persuasive? Why do you think so?

The argument was clearly organized.

What could make this argument more organized and easier to understand?

The argument explained how all the evidence was connected to the claim.

Which ideas could be better explained or connected together?

The science ideas were accurate.

Are there any ideas in the argument that you are not sure were scientifically accurate? If so, which ideas should be checked for accuracy?
